No.	Question	Answer
1.	We are in the process of writing our proposal for the Dignity Diversion grant and have a question regarding Attachment D – Pricing Proposal Template. Instructions on the RFP don't give much info about what to include. It just says, "A completed pricing proposal with all requested prices, quantities, and/or discounts completed." This is in addition to the budget form. On page 2 of the RFP, it says: 10. PRICING PROPOSAL..... 38 But there is no section 10. The document ends with Section 9. Submittals. I am unsure what to put on Attachment D. Can you please provide more details about what to include?	Please complete Attachment E, Program Budget and Fiscal Questionnaire. Attachment D can be utilized as an addendum if there are other pricing points your organization must add that do not adhere to Attachment E.
2.	I know that we are outside the window of asking questions but in working on an RFP response for the Diversion Program for Persons Arrested for Prostitution, we noticed that the addendum attached in the procurement website shows a date of October 18, 2022. Would you prefer that we leave this document out of our submission or submit the addendum but not sign it since the date is retro?	Thank you for pointing that out. If you have no additional questions, there is no need for you to submit the Addendum K Form Question.
