REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS

The City of Phoenix is seeking a qualified consultant team to provide engineering services for installation of approximately 30,000 feet of new 24-inch water transmission main from Cave Creek Road and Desert Peak Parkway and connecting to an existing 54-inch transmission main near Booster Station 5ED-B1. Services will include an alignment study, design, and possible construction administration and inspection services. The estimated construction cost is $15 million.

SECTION I – PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The City of Phoenix Water Services Department (WSD) master planning group has identified a need for a new 24-inch water transmission main between the intersection of Cave Creek Road and Desert Peak Parkway and connecting to an existing 54-inch transmission main near Booster Station 5ED-B1. It is estimated to be about 30,000 feet of new pipe.

The selected consultant will be tasked with providing an alignment study, complete project design plans, specifications, and engineer's estimate for the project as well as obtaining all necessary regulatory approvals. The selected consultant may also be asked to provide construction administration and inspection services for the project once it enters construction phase. There is a right-of-way (ROW) study going on in an area that overlaps this pipeline's potential alignment. It is the City's preference that this pipeline can be aligned inside future ROW in this area. Coordination with Street ROW study may be part of the services. In addition, a portion of this pipeline alignment may overlap a portion of a future force main alignment for the City's Lift Station (LS) 66. Coordination with LS 66 third force main design may be a part of the services.

This project is expected to use a Construction Manager at Risk (CMAR) delivery method. The selected CMAR will be contracted with the City during the design phase covered by this RFQ; the City expects the selected consultant to work closely with the CMAR during design.

SECTION II – SCOPE OF WORK

All work performed is expected to be done in close coordination with City of Phoenix staff and other consultants as determined by the City. The general scope of work includes providing an alignment study, design, and possible construction support services for approximately 30,000 feet of proposed new 24-inch water transmission main piping in north/northwest Phoenix.

Alignment study services consist of evaluating the general topographic contour, utility conflicts, property ownership and easement requirements to provide a hydraulic sensible, technical feasible, easily accessible, and cost-effective alignment for the future transmission main.

Design support services consist of providing technical support and consultations relative to installation techniques and procedures, ensuring adherence to the City standards and to all applicable regulatory requirements. The selected firm will attend design meetings, support the City with research of existing conditions, conduct design reviews of project plans and specifications, and support the City with understanding the Water Service Department's standards for water transmission pipelines. In addition, the selected firm may be required to support City staff in updating and maintaining the Water Service Department's standards as necessary.

Construction support services consist of reviewing materials & equipment submittals, conducting reviews on the installation, providing field observations reports, reviewing the completeness of required equipment testing documentation and witnessing the sampling and testing.

Specific experience with the City of Phoenix design standards and water distribution system are preferred. The firm will be required to supply all the tools and equipment necessary to complete the design of this project. As such, the following is a list of services expected to be performed by the selected consultant on an as requested basis:

- Gather and review information to conduct alignment study, including providing survey of the proposed pipeline alignment, researching property ownership, verifying geographic contour, requesting, and reviewing as-builts and utility maps etc.
- Prepare easement documents for the proposed pipeline alignment

- Provide pothole list and coordinate potholing with Construction Manager at Risk (CMAR)
- Develop 30%, 60%, 90% and 100% design plan, associated construction specifications and associated cost estimates
- Conduct project related workshops, such as alignment coordination discussion, design review, etc.
- Attend project related design/construction progress meetings
- Attend meetings with various entities and provide assistances as needed, such as easement acquisition, ROW coordination, regulatory comments resolution, etc.
- Draft MOPOs (Method of Planned Operation) for shut-downs and attend City shut-down operational meetings
- Actively coordinate and communicate with CMAR (if selected) and City staff for all related activities
- Provide pre-construction services, as required by the City, including but not limited to reviewing Guaranteed Maximum Price (GMPs) and project schedule, construction bid price and subcontractor selection plans (if CMAR is selected)
- Provide services, as needed, for environmental/archeological assessments, aerial topography, geotechnical services, land survey and mapping, construction easements, and drainage associated with the project
- Coordination with other City departments or other jurisdictions to obtain all applicable permits, such as Maricopa County Approval to Construct (ATC) construction permits prior to construction
- Potential construction administration & inspection services for the construction phase, including but not limited to; coordination with the contractor on-site during construction, administration of the construction schedule, administration of the shop drawing and submittal review process as well as payment applications, review Request for Information (RFIs) and change orders, inspection of all construction activities as they progress, issuance of substantial and final completion, etc.
- Assist with the City's Project Manager on public outreach efforts as needed
- Other duties as assigned
